

Isn't it about time
you learned to read
between the lines?

Of course you have a natural sense of rhythm. But to truly make beautiful music, you need something more.

You need the ability to read and interpret measures, note values, time signatures and other key components of music. That's why Band Instrument Exchange offers a broad scale of private classes for musicians of all ages and abilities.

To read more about this, stop by or call and request a list of available classes today.
